IN CHICAGO

Indignation Is General Over the Insult to Bryan.

The Egg Throwing Condemned by the Leading Papers of the Western Metropolis—Bryan Gets to Work Early This Morning and Speaks to an Audience of 5,000 as a Starter.

By Telegram to THE TIMES. Chicago, Ill., Oct. 28.—Indignation is general over the insult to Mr. Bryan last night, and the action of those who sought to interfere with the meeting and who threw stale eggs at the candidate is bitterly condemned. Every paper in the city condemns it as disgraceful and deplores the fact that such disgraceful occurrences should happen in Chicago.

Mr. Bryan was at work early this morning. He was somewhat fatigued, owing to the strain of last night's enormous meetings. He made his first address in St. Stanislaus hall to an audience of over 5,000. Most of his hearers were of Polish ancestry. Mr. Bryan was introduced to the audience by a leading Polish lady, Mrs. Barzynski, assisted by Mrs. Kowalski. He made a brief speech and was enthusiastically received.

Mr. Bryan's next speech was to business men at the armory of Battery D, on the lake front. The place was crowded and they gave Bryan a long-continued ovation, the applause lasting fully ten minutes.

Big Four Directors Re-elected.

By Telegram to THE TIMES. Cincinnati, O., Oct. 28.—The Big Four stockholders today re-elected for three years, by a unanimous vote, directors Geo. T. Bliss, Jas. D. Layung and H. McK. Twombly, of New York; John T. Dyer, of Indianapolis, and W. P. Anderson, of Rhode Island.

Named the New Ships.

By Telegram to THE TIMES. Washington, D. C., Oct. 28.—Secretary Herbert has named the three new battle-ships, now under construction, Alabama, Illinois and Wisconsin. The gun-boats have been named Annapolis, Marietta, Newport, Princeton, Vicksburg and Wheeling.

Board of Bishops in Session.

By Telegram to THE TIMES. Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 28.—The annual conference of the board of bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church, began a session this morning. It will continue two weeks.

Carlisle Can't Vote.

By Telegram to THE TIMES. Louisville, Ky., Oct. 28.—Mr. Carlisle will not vote, because the time for registration has expired. He speaks at the Auditorium tonight.

Old Newspaper Man Dead.

By Telegram to THE TIMES. New York, Oct. 28.—Daniel V. Bennett, who published the first newspaper in Piqua, O., died in Brooklyn today, aged 79.

The Markets.

AT IRONTON

Old Polo Ball Players Have Arranged for a Game Saturday.

The Irontonians states that a ball game has been arranged in that city for Thursday afternoon between Ironton players and members of the Polo team of this city. It states that Dick Smith, late of the Columbus team, will do the twirling for Ironton, with "Punch" Kellner, of the Maysville team, behind the bat. Blackwell will cover first, Harry Tracy second, Watson third and Lactenbach short, while Tom Welch, D. Rooney and Fred Frank will look after the outfield. Portsmouth will present Danny Friend of this season's Chicago league team in the box. They will also have a strong infield and outfield.

Back from Pittsburgh.

Ed. Shepherd has returned from near Pittsburgh with a couple of teams. He has been working on a railroad contract for Mat. Spillacy. Owing to the inclement weather he was unable to work only about three days in the week, and was losing money.

Nat Smith Beaten.

J. Vonschitz and Nat Smith, of the West Side, had a trial before Squire Vandegrift, Smith suing for $94 damages for corn taken by Vonschitz. The Squire decided in the latter's favor.

Dissolved Partnership.

The front street commission and farm implement house of Brown, Adams & Brown has dissolved partnership. Mr. Adams is the retiring member, and the firm is now Brown & Brown. Mr. Adams is going into the coal business.

GAS EXPLOSION

Caused One Death and Injured Several Others.

By Telegram to THE TIMES. Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 28.—An explosion of natural gas at Avalon, a suburb of Allegheny, killed Bessie Osborn and seriously injured her brother and sister, all children. A leak in a kitchen pipe caused the explosion.

OHIO REPUBLICANS

In New York Had a Political Meeting Today.

By Telegram to THE TIMES. New York, Oct. 28.—Ohio day of the series of mid-day meetings of the Commercial Travellers' Sound Money club brought together a large number of former residents of the Buckeye state. Captain A. H. Mattox presided. The first speech was by Gen. Wager Swayne, and Fred Grant followed. Then came Gen. Strong and Anson G. McCook.

Paul Sorg Back.

By Telegram to THE TIMES. New York, Oct. 28.—Hon. Paul Sorg, of Hamilton, O., arrived on the Teutonic today from Liverpool.

The Barbicane on Her Way Home.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The cruiser Barbicane, on her way home from Turkey with the short term men of Admiral S. Frigate's fleet, reached Gibraltar Tuesday, eight days out from Smyrna. The remaining ships of the squadron, the flagship Minneapolis, the San Francisco, Cincinnati and Hancock, are still at Smyrna, not having moved for two weeks. The battleship Massachusetts left Hampton roads Tuesday to rejoin Admiral Bunces's fleet at Tompkinsville, N. Y.

Wall Street Frightened.

New York, Oct. 28.—Wall street was frightened Tuesday forenoon by a report that Gen. Fitzhugh Lee's report to the president on the situation in Cuba was about to be made and that it was of such a character that a call for an extra session of congress would be sent out in a short time, to which the president would address a warlike message. The stock market was broken sharply on these reports, sugar being the main sufferer. The rumors have no foundation in fact.

Three Men Mangled.

MANSFIELD, O., Oct. 28.—The engine of a portable sawmill on the farm of Thomas Lutz, six miles south of this city, exploded Tuesday, instantly killing George Anderson, an offbearer, aged 50, and married, and fatally injured Henry Lutz, engineer, and young Thomas Lutz, fireman.

Pacey Asks Parole.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 28.—An application has been made for the parole of Stewart Pacey, of Hamilton county, the cab driver who in the January term of court was given a four-year's sentence for robbery. There will probably be no opposition to the granting of the parole.

Sight Destroyed by a Cork.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 28.—Carrie Nagel, aged 16 years, of Thirteenth and Walnut streets, was struck in the right eye by a cork, blown from a ginger ale bottle which she was opening a few days ago. The eye was so badly injured that it had to be taken out.

U. S. Attorneys Made Speeches.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—It is learned by inquiry at the department of justice that no attempt has been made by the attorney general, to prevent United States attorneys from making political speeches during the present campaign, although a number of such officers have been making them on both sides of the money question.

The Gold Reserve.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The treasury gold reserve at the close of business Tuesday stood at $119,056,245. The day's withdrawals at New York were $131,400.

Lavigne Awarded the Fight.

BOHEMIAN CLUB, NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—In the 24th round the referee stopped the fight between Kid Lavigne and Jack Everhart and awarded it to Lavigne.

Shot and Killed His Brother.

BOSCONIA, Wis., Oct. 28.—Alexander and Edward Day, brothers, living near Carville, this county, quarreled over a trivial matter and Edward shot Alexander dead. The murderer was arrested.

Fair Day Next Tuesday.

St. Louis, Oct. 28.—"Election day will be bright and pleasant," said Rev. Irl R. Hicks, the weather forecaster, Tuesday. "In the western part of the country," he continued, "there will be severe storms. We will catch their disturbances ourselves during the last three days of October, but they will spend their fury before election day."

Lima Oil Up a Cent.

LIMA, O., Oct. 28.—Lima oil advanced one cent Tuesday. North Lima is now 65 cents per barrel, and South Lima and Indiana 60 cents. Pennsylvania oil was advanced three cents, making it now 61.17 cents.

Registration in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 28.—The board of elections gives out the grand total of registration in this city as 50,893.

EGG THROWING.

Immense Throng Greeted Bryan on His Arrival in Chicago.

A Great Cheer Goes Up as the Candidate Steps Into His Carriage.

While the Procession Was on Monroe Street Several State Eggs Were Thrown—Several of His Escorts Bespattered—Reward of $500 Offered.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—A wild shriek that continued to grow in volume went up from the big crowds lining the approach to the Union depot, when Bryan's special pulled in at 3:30 p. m. Tuesday, exactly on time.

The police were almost powerless in their attempt to keep the shouting enthusiasts from overwhelming the candidate and his wife and it was only by a hard struggle that they were pushed, pulled and wedged to a stairway leading to the street. This proved an island of safety, for the police turned on the excited mob following Mr. and Mrs. Bryan and kept them from going further.

A great cheer went up as the candidate stepped into a carriage drawn by four white horses. After some delay the procession started, the carriage containing Mrs. and Mrs. Bryan passing through a double line of political organizations which fell into line and followed after it. The central committee of the Cook county people's party organization; the central committee of the democratic party of Cook county; the presidents and secretaries of democratic and silver clubs of Cook county; the Carter Harrison association, Cook County Democracy Marching club; a Negro free silver club; and Bryan clubs composed of Germans, Irish, French, Polish, Bohemian, Hebrew and other foreign nationalities were in the parade. The candidate had as his personal escort a large body of men composing the Chicago committee, who marched beside his carriage over the entire route.

The procession proceeded up Canal street to Madison, to Fifth avenue, to Washington street, to Clark street, to Monroe street and to Battery D, arriving at the intersection of Monroe with Michigan avenues. All along that roundabout line of march the greatest enthusiasm was manifested. Hisses were heard frequently. They came principally from people who swarmed in the windows of business houses and brought rigorous responses of an uncompromising character from those in the line. As the Negro silver club was hissed the loudest, so was it the recipient of the greatest shouts of approval. The Cook County Democracy Marching club also came in for much of the applause. Nearly everybody in the procession carried an American flag. It was just before Mr. Bryan reached the armory building on the lake front that the only incident that marred the demonstration occurred.

A number of eggs were thrown in the direction of his carriage from the Metropolitan Business college on the fourth floor of a building situated on the north side of Monroe street, near the corner of Michigan avenue.

None of the missiles reached the candidate or his wife but several members of the reception committee, marching beside them, suffered.

The spacious armory, capable of holding 10,000 people standing, had been kept clear by the police until the arrival of the principal actor. A wild rush of the people followed Mr. Bryan's entrance. So quick was the charge of the anxious to get inside that Mrs. Bryan had not time to alight before a wild, cheering mob separated her from her husband. She therefore remained in the carriage and was driven to the auditorium annex, where the nominee will make his headquarters while here.

The egg throwing incident of the Bryan parade Tuesday afternoon has aroused considerable indignation in Chicago and Chief of Police Badenoch took prompt action in the matter. After the Battery D meeting Sol Van Praag and J. W. Murray, of the Cook County Marching club, who were hit by the eggs, made a complaint to the police.

The chief detailed 15 men to investigate the matter, and offered a reward of $500 for the apprehension of the throwers. No arrests have been made. It is stated that one of the tenants in the building occupied by the business college saw a boy of probably 18 years climbing down the fire escape about the time the incident occurred. This leads to the belief that the occurrence was only the prank of an over enthusiastic youth. The matter will be fully investigated.

Fire Island Sold.

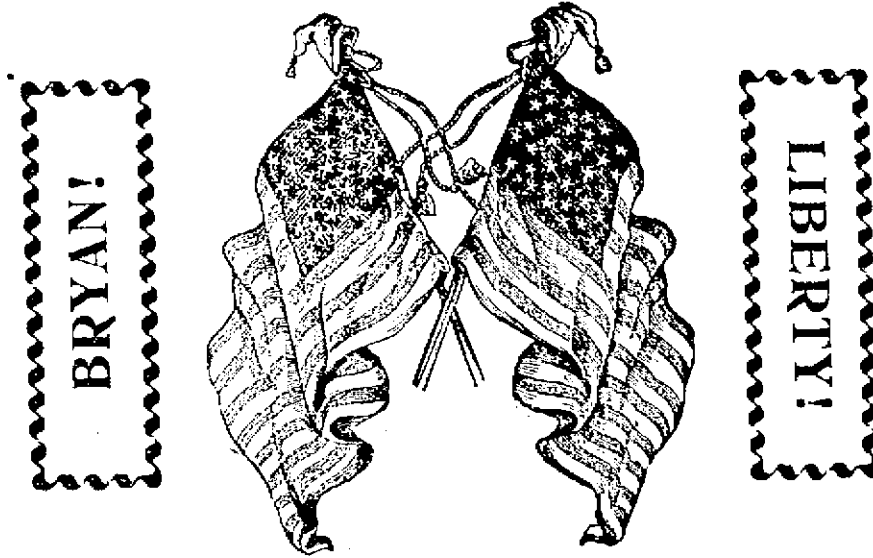

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Fire Island, which was purchased by the city as a quarantine station during the cholera scare of 1892, was sold at auction Tuesday. The island and the buildings upon it cost the city $221,000, and the price realized at the sale was $20,000.

Murderer at Twelve.

RED BLUFF, Cal., Oct. 28.—A report has been received from Battle Creek, in this county, that Santone C. Nunez, a Portuguese, was shot and instantly killed by his stepson, Joe Sosza, about 12 years old.

"Old Glory"

Let Her Float From Your House Tops Saturday.

Let every Bryan man put a flag on his house, be it ever so small. From the ranks of labor always come the defenders of our country. Millionaires never enlist in defense of the flag. They love the flag in time of peace, the common people defend it in time of war. Fling it to the breeze Saturday.

REVOLUTIONISTS.

Several Arrests Made by the Turkish Authorities.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 28.—A number of important arrests were made by the Turkish authorities in this city Monday and Tuesday. All of the prisoners are described as "Notorious revolutionary Armenians." The governor of the district of Pera declares that one of the persons arrested, a Persian, had in his possession letters showing that he was engaged in a conspiracy against the government. The other prisoners included three Armenian men and four women, all anarchists and all living in the same house. Six of them had revolvers. The governor adds that when the prisoners were searched, five small bombs intended to be charged with dynamite were found concealed in the corsage of one of the women.

THE TALE IS FALSE.

An Anonymous Letter Said to Have Been Written to McKinley Threatening His Life.

CANTON, O., Oct. 28.—A startling story to the effect that McKinley's life has been threatened is being circulated in Canton. Numerous inquiries have been made about it. They have all brought the answer that the tale is false. The story is that McKinley received a letter a few days ago without stamp, postmark or signature, stating that within a week his life would be taken.

Maj. McKinley could not be seen in regard to the report, but Capt. Heistand, U. S. A., who is his household confidant, said that the story is perfectly ridiculous.

PINNED DOWN AND BURNED.

Ira Sawyer Killed by a Tree Eaten Through by His Campfire.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Oct. 28.—Near Hamlin, Lincoln county, Ira Sawyer and several other companions went coon hunting. Sawyer became separated from his companions and lost his way. He made a fire against a tree and lay down to wait for daylight. He went to sleep, and the fire burned the tree through till it fell of its own weight, pinning Sawyer to the ground. The fire continued to burn the tree till it reached Sawyer and burned him so badly that he died in an hour after his friends found him in the morning.

NEARLY OUT OF GOLD.

Sub-Treasury in San Francisco Loses $10,000,000 in Two Weeks.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 28.—The sub-treasury has just pulled through a rather serious run, which threatened to annihilate its gold reserve. Aid came from Chicago and other sources, and when the outpouring of gold finally stopped the $12,000,000 of a few months ago, despite the frequent additions that have been made during that period, was reduced to a bare $4,000,000. In two weeks $10,000,000 worth of greenbacks were dumped over the counters and the gold they represented withdrawn.

Fatal Shooting at Akron.

AKRON, O., Oct. 28.—Martin Artbauer was fatally shot by Mathias Remiger, who charged Artbauer with talking about his wife. Both are young men and employees of the American Cereal Co.

Hopes Victim Will Die.

AKRON, O., Oct. 28.—Martin Artbauer, shot Monday night by Mathias Remiger, is still alive, but the doctors say he can not live through the night. Remiger says he hopes Artbauer will die.

Cotell Granted a Stay.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 27.—The supreme court Tuesday granted Romulus Cotell, the murderer of the Stone family, an indefinite postponement of execution, pending a new trial.

THAT LETTER.

Chairman Senator Marion Butler Makes a Statement.

Watson's Missive Was Detained for Insufficient Postage.

The Letter is Now in the Hands of Mr. Butler, but Will Not Be Published by Him Until Mr. Watson Makes Some Important Changes.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Senator Marion Butler, chairman of the populist national committee, Tuesday night gave out the following:

Mr. Watson's letter was received Saturday night. It had been detained in the post office for want of sufficient postage and I had not been notified by the post office authorities. Of course, I expected Mr. Watson to give his letter to the public in the usual way as soon as he had it ready. At a recent meeting of our executive committee at Chicago, Mr. Washburn was sent by our committee to Thomson, Ga., to confer with Mr. Watson. On last Monday, October 19, I received a telegram from Mr. Washburn, sent while he was at Mr. Watson's home at Thomson, Ga., asking not to publish Mr. Watson's letter until I heard from him, but that was before I had received the letter. In the meantime, Mr. Washburn went to Nashville, Tenn., on last Sunday for another conference with Mr. Watson. I wired Mr. Washburn who had just returned from Nashville, where he had a second conference with Mr. Watson, that the letter had been received.

Mr. Washburn wired me in reply asking me not to publish the letter at present. In the meantime I have wired to Mr. Watson urging the advisability of making at least some important change in his letter. If he authorizes this change I will give out the letter. Otherwise he must take the responsibility of publishing it himself.

BROOKLYN FIRE.

Property to the Amount of Three Hundred Thousand Dollars Destroyed.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Oct. 28.—A disastrous fire in Ronald's, a six-story building on the corner of State and Jorum Place, in which there were a number of narrow escapes from loss of life, took place Tuesday afternoon. The firm manufactured plumbers' supplies. Adjoining buildings are Fay Harman & Chadwig, corner manufacturers, Lockitt & Findley and Semmon Bros. skirt manufacturers. The latter firms employ upwards of 75 girls, and the fact that all got out safely is almost miraculous, as they were in the upper stories. The fire originated in the fourth floor, from an unknown cause, and spread rapidly both upward and downward and in a few minutes the whole structure was a mass of flames and thousands of people had collected in the streets near by. The Fay Harman and Chadwig Co. and Semmon Brothers' skirt factory employs about 200 in number, nearly all of whom were girls, were on part of the building first attacked by the flames, and there was a great jam on the stairs and fire escapes, but so far as can be learned all have been accounted for. Many of them fainted and had to be carried down the stairs by the firemen and male employees.

The fire burned five hours and completely wrecked the building. The loss is estimated at $300,000, most of which is Ronald's company. Fay Harman and Chadwig place their loss at $25,000.

ILLINOIS POPULISTS

Instructed to Vote the Straight Democratic Ticket.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Chairman Gowdy, of the republican state committee, Tuesday issued a letter, instructing republican election judges to count votes for names on the ballot twice, (fusion candidates) as though they were separate men of the same name. This letter gave the fusion populists the opportunity they have been waiting for, and Tuesday night they issued a proclamation, calling upon all populists, in view of this letter, to vote the straight democratic ticket. The proclamation is signed by the chairman and secretary of the populist state committee and half a dozen other populists.

Young Doctor Killed.

MASSFIELD, O., Oct. 28.—A telegram received Tuesday from Blair's Mills, Pa., says that Dr. John Speers, a prominent young physician of this city, and nephew of Dr. A. J. Erwin, the oculist, was accidentally shot and instantly killed while hunting.

Fourth and Sixth Ward Union Free Silver club meets at Gims' hall every Thursday night.

The editor of the Blade has nothing to say of Bushnell editorially. This is too bad.

The Times office flings "old glory" to the breeze today. We have just as good a right to exhibit our patriotism as have the banks, corporations, trusts, syndicates, and their agents and attorneys of Third street, Cincinnati. And not having shot Union soldiers from the bushes, we believe that we have a right to hang "old glory" out four days to the editor of the Blade's one day. Let all Bryan men hang out their flags on next Saturday. Don't let the gold bug spot you!

"J. O. Boyd, Esq., of the Sixth ward, this city, called on us today to say to us that he had heard the speech of Hon. Charles Foster last week, and, like Paul of Tarsus on his way to Damascus, had heard a voice and seen a new light shining round about him calling upon him to stop and think, and thereupon he did stop and think."
—Blade.

If Hon. Charles Foster, the repudiator of nearly a million of debts he owed the people of Fostoria, is so effective on the stump, why not send John Overturf out?

"I'll tell you what I will do," replied Mr. Webb, "I will go to work on that house in the morning, and push the work right along. If McKinley is not elected it won't cost you a cent. I'm just that sure of the outcome."

On that basis work commenced this morning on the house.—Blade.

Mr. Webb is not doing anything of the kind, or he could get plenty of such jobs. Now, if he was to get double price if McKinley was elected, there would be some plausibility about the story. We haven't found any McKinley men around handing out $500 to their friends and telling them if McKinley is not elected they can keep it. Such things are too thin.

The Blade refuses to obey the dictates of Charles Kurtz and hang out its flags. Now, the Times will be no less patriotic than Third street in Cincinnati. All the banks and corporation agents and attorneys have their flags out. Is it not a strange thing how these men love to flaunt the old flag? Suppose you go among the millionaires of this country, how many would you find that had marched under "old glory" when the leaden hail of the enemy was falling all around it? These men were making their millions, while the old soldier carried "old glory" to victory for forty cents on the dollar. The trusts should send a flag around to the poor men whom they have robbed.

"Run Around Pat and Dr. Carter were billed last week for a speech at the Watts school house. The audience and the speakers were there on time, Popocrats and Republicans. And the boys do say that in a few leading and pertinent questions, our old friend, W. L. Lambert, so befuddled the good doctor and his associate, Run Around, that they scarcely knew where they were."
—Blade.

We made no speech last week. Do not know where Watts school-house is. Never was in it. But why deny? No one believes anything in the Blade. If they did, there would be nobody at the Bushnell meeting tonight. The condition of the editor of the Blade is pitiable. His quotations from the anarchistic sheet, The Sun, are so senile and nauseating that they disgust the Blade's readers, and his own staff is still more disgusting. Poor old man; his repentance is near at hand, or Satan will have one more spirit to join his innumerable hosts.

The Blade will not deny that the railroad procession had Bryan men in it last Saturday night. They yelled for Bryan while on one of their hand-cars. It will not deny that there were hundreds of men in the Jackson crowd that came here to the Sherman meeting. Will it deny these facts in the face of the fact that there are hundreds of people here who know that Bryan men marched in both of these processions? Did these men march in these processions from choice, or in obedience to the demands of their bosses. No effort to deceive the people by taking individual cases and then denying them, will prevail. When you prove that the gold bug processions coming and going from this city, and the processions marching in its streets were all McKinley men, then you can make the workmen believe there is no effort being made to coerce the men into wearing McKinley buttons. It is not necessary to have these employers drive their men to the polls like the master drove his slaves of the South in former days. The editor of the Blade was once a slave driver, and he thinks the laboring man is free so long as his master don't use the black-snake.

On all hands the laboring people give evidence of refusing to obey the demands of the trusts, corporations and combines. They know too well what will be the result of putting Mark Hanna in as chief headman of the McKinley administration. Not a labor union will be in existence in four years if Mark gets to be President "do facto."

Mark Hanna's Phonograph.

It is assumed by untruthful politicians on the stump and by ignoramus of the Dorchester type in the pulpit that the resolutions of the Democratic platform on the subject of the income tax and government by injunction constitute an attack on the judiciary of the land and show a trend toward anarchy or socialism. The Democratic position is very plain on these matters. It declares for an income tax and for the passage of the bill pending in congress modifying the injunction usage of the courts so as to guarantee labor trial by jury. If this assails the judiciary and is anarchistic, is it not a little singular that so far Major McKinley in his front porch speeches has declined to declare his opinions on either issue? He has not spoken a word on either, but in a cowardly and evasive way, showing his heart is not in the job, has used the stock insinuations about Democratic anarchy and attacks on the judiciary. Can anyone tell how Major McKinley stands on the income tax? Presumably, as the candidate of the organized plutocracy of the country, he is against it. But so far he has not ventured to say yes or nay. Bryan speaks out boldly and clearly. So, too, as to government by injunction. Is Major McKinley inclined to countenance or approve a remedy for this perversion of judicial powers to serve the interests of corporations? No one can tell. Mark Hanna keeps him muzzled. And as to the principle of arbitration in the settlement of labor disputes on railroads amenable to the interstate commerce jurisdiction of congress, Mr. Bryan says the Democratic position on that important and vital question, and not the question of free coinage, is the real cause of the combined opposition of the railway corporations, into which opposition they have dragged, in one way or another, so many of their men. Not a railroad employe in the land but knows where Bryan stands on arbitration and government by injunction. Not one knows where McKinley stands. He is equally misty on the money question. He is for "sound money," and so is everybody in the land, but the muzzled McKinley is careful to avoid specific statement and goes in strong for meaningless generalities. Of course all know what the outcome will be should such a weakling be made President. He will pass under the way of stronger minds, as he has already, and will become the obedient servant of the banded plutocratic and corporate power of the country.

If there is one thing in this canvass every Democrat in the land is proud of it is the manly and courageous, open and above-board declarations of our candidate on every question properly in issue. He does not skulk behind the coat tails of a national chairman and dodge in schoolboy generalities weak as rain water. Skulking is just what McKinley does, and what he has been doing since the canvass commenced and before, while Hanna was working up the St. Louis nomination. It is a well-known fact that all speeches made on McKinley's front porch are carefully gone over before they are delivered, so that no inconvenient question or suggestion can creep in. You never hear a question put to the candidate in the Canton yard. There are always several "bouncers" on the ground to squelch inconvenient question askers.

Bryan represents the highest type of American politics, with nothing to conceal or evade. McKinley is little better than a stuffed manikin, with Hanna pulling the wires—in fact, Hanna's phonograph.—Pittsburg Post.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured By local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

FOOT BALL.

The game Saturday, the P. O. C. vs. Athens university, should draw a big crowd. The Athens team recently defeated the Chillicothe eleven. Batterson and Moulton, two Scioto county boys, play in the Athens eleven.

Another game has been arranged for between the P. O. C. and Chillicothe eleven. It will be played at Chillicothe Friday, Nov. 13th. The Portsmouth team wanted to play the game on Saturday, but the Chillicothe boys think Friday is a better day to draw a crowd.

A third eleven is being organized. "Chip" Blake is at the head of the new team and he has enlisted the following excellent talent: John Murphy, "Dutch" Koerner, "Chuck" Evans, Ed. Murphy, Jim Whittaker, Arthur Calhoun, Sil. Holt, Fred Murphy, Lee Startzman and Henry Wiggins. They are practicing at Coney Island and down on the river front.

VANMETER'S RINGING LETTER.

The Eloquent Chillicothean Does Not See How McKinley Is Going to Carry His Own State This Fall.

The Chillicothe Gazette reprints an interesting personal letter from J. M. Vanmeter to his nephew in Denver, in which the Judge expresses the belief that Bryan will carry Ohio, unless McKinley's managers can save the state by the unprecedented use of money. He does not believe that many citizens can be influenced this campaign.

Judge Vanmeter says that more than half the farmers in Ohio must borrow money to pay their December taxes, and half of that half will not be able to borrow, because the banks know they have no money and will not be able to pay their notes at maturity. This, then is the condition: Forty per cent. of our voting population have each a blister on his back, or what is worse, a blister on his brain.

The Republicans are complacently contemplating the enormous majorities since 1892, but they "have indicated nothing but the angry rebellion of the Democrats who saw the fruits of their well-earned victory turned into dust and ashes, and who are willing to see the ship go down 'because it had a skunk aboard.'"

Bryan's magnificent challenge, as it rang through the land, aroused a sleeping nation, and all the real Democrats came home again. All this the Republicans refuse to see. It is no wonder, then, that they think Ohio is safe for them. It is just as little wonder that Democrats seeing from one to fifty men (who have always been Republicans) in every precinct openly supporting Bryan, should conclude that Bryan must carry the state.

The history of politics in this country shows no exception to this rule; that no party has ever been put out of power when the people thought they were prosperous, and no party has failed to be put out when the people were not prosperous. With mad disregard of this part of our history, the Republicans have allowed Mr. Cleveland and his party to be made a side-show to the Republican circus, and thus have brought upon themselves the odium of his failure.

We are certainly gaining every day, and while I do not pretend that there is no uncertainty, I cannot see how McKinley can even carry his own state."

FELL THIRTY FEET.

Wm. Davis, a Portsmouth Man Working on the L. & N. Bridge at Cincinnati Meets With an Accident.

William Davis, a Portsmouth man, while employed on the new L. & N. bridge at Cincinnati, fell Monday, while at work, and sustained a fracture of the left arm and also a fracture of a rib. Severe bruises were received about the head. He fell a distance of over thirty feet, striking the street. He is now in the Good Samaritan hospital. His condition is not considered serious.

A GREAT STORY

Is That About Bryan Getting Paid by the Towns Where He Stops and Keeps the Money.

One of the many stories floating around is that Bryan pockets the money raised by the various towns at which he stops. People never stop to think that this money is used to defray the necessary expenses of the campaign—to pay for the special trains, advertising, etc. For instance, when John Sherman was here, the Republican committee of this town raised over $1,200, and the Times might just as consistently announce that John Sherman was paid over $1,200 for visiting Portsmouth. One statement is just as sensible as the other.

They Are All for Silver.

John Childs has returned from Jackson O. H. W. Va., where he was called a few days ago. Mr. Childs says politics are red-hot in that section, and that everybody seems to be for silver. The county, which was formerly Republican, will probably go for Bryan and silver.

Free Silver Lunch.

The ladies of the Baptist church will serve lunch next Saturday, the day of the free silver rally, at 416 Chillicothe street. Come everybody.

Let There Be Fair Play.

The statement that Hanna has seven million dollars to be distributed among the states for use in the immediate election appears preposterous. Yet, when it is remembered that the bond syndicate of the McKinley banker Morgan made eleven million dollars directly and a large sum indirectly by the first bond issue under the private bond contract; that hundreds of millions have been obtained out of the government for railroad and other subsidies, and that corporations and trusts depend for the continuation of their privileges, and perhaps for their existence, upon McKinley's election, the sum is not so large as it may at first appear.

This will insure to every McKinley voter a good round sum for his vote to enable him to enjoy his Christmas holiday. If he makes up his mind that he intends to vote for McKinley any way, and is a poor working man to whom the money is a Godsend, he may probably persuade his conscience that his receipt of the amount is not bribery and corruption, and that he is justified in accepting it. He certainly will not be likely to make any money out of the McKinley policy or the McKinley party after the election.

But the seven-million-dollar fund ought to be fairly and equally distributed. There ought to be no unjust discrimination in it, as there is in tariff taxation, and no favoring one voter at the expense of another. As there is a general understanding that McKinley ballots are to be liberally paid for, every man who casts one without receiving his price may make up his mind that he has been made a fool of by his party leaders. Besides, it is an old trick of the Republican district bosses, who receive the money for their several districts in a lump, to forget to distribute the amount, and so cheat the poor voter.

The money is in the Republican treasury. It was raised for the McKinley voters. They ought to look after their own interests and see that it gets into the hands for which it was intended and that every one gets his due share.

The New York Herald, a ranting McKinley organ, concedes Bryan 210 electoral votes and elects McKinley with the aid of Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Maryland and Kentucky. As the democrats confidently expect to carry each of these states, the Herald's estimate is practically a concession of Bryan's election.

The market value of all our farm products will not pay the interest on the country's mortgaged indebtedness; and yet it is proposed to make permanent the gold standard, under which the value of farm products is constantly falling and debts made more difficult of payment.

"Those who are most fearful that there will be a laxity of the enforcement of the law are the very persons who would suffer most if the laws were enforced. The very persons who are afraid the law will be violated with impunity are the ones who have violated the law with impunity."—Mr. Bryan.

Here is a fair illustration of the operation of the gold standard: In 1870 the average value of the farms in the United States was $3,430. In 1880 the average value had been reduced to $2,428, and in 1890 to $1,620. All prosperity must come from the farm. How can prosperity come from farms like these?

Every regular state democratic convention and every regular county democratic convention held since the Chicago convention has endorsed the nominees and the creed of the democratic party.

"I will tell you about the tariff question. If the men who want protection will join me in putting a prohibitory duty on foreign financial policies, I will discuss the rest of the tariff schedule with them."—W. J. Bryan.

When McKinley was governor of Ohio, Hanna was his guardian. Therefore, in criticizing Bryan's opponent, we look not at the servant, but at the master—not at McKinley, the most pitiable figurehead in public life to-day, but at Hanna, his owner and tyrant.—Rev. Herbert U. Casson, of Lynn, Mass.

"I don't want any man to vote for me because he thinks that if I am elected I will help him put his hands in somebody else's pocket. All I expect to do is to prevent somebody else from putting his hands in your pockets."—W. J. Bryan.

—Mr. Hanna began his career as the manager of a political trust by saddling McKinley with his syndicate; he followed this by saddling the republican national convention with McKinley, and crowned his work by saddling the republican party with a crushing load of millionaire finance committees. The defiance of public decency and popular sentiment into which the syndicate boss has led the republican party has never been equaled in the history of politics. The republicans realize their blunder now. They would give much to be rid of their mortgaged candidate and his political receivers.—St. Louis Republic.

—The Binghamton Republican quotes an act of 1873 to prove that the silver dollar in our currency has a "gold backing." The silver dollar has been standing up since 1873. Prior to 1873 it stood up, too, but between these two periods it had no standing in the currency. What held up the silver dollar from 1792 to 1893?—Binghamton (N. Y.) Leader.

—No candidate for the presidency was ever maligned as Mr. Bryan has been, but he has not lost his temper and goes right ahead with his effective talks to the people. The slanderers are not accomplishing their object.—N. Y. Journal.

—Every time another of those 1890 free coinage letters turns up, poor Maj. McKinley curses the man that invented pen and ink.—Albany Argus.

MR. HOGAN

Confident of Big Democratic Gains
All Over the District.

An Old Soldier Riddles Mark Hanna's
Circulars at Sciotoville

And Tells Why He Is Going to Support
Bryan—Good News from All Over the Country—Immense Crowds Coming to Portsmouth, Saturday.

Hon. T. S. Hogan, of Wellston, Democratic candidate for congress in this district, was a visitor in this city a few hours this morning between trains. He came up from Ironton at 10:28 and left at 11:45 for Peebles, where he will spend a few days in Adams county.

Mr. Hogan has been making a grand campaign the past few weeks, speaking two and three times a day. He has covered almost the entire district and everywhere has been received with great enthusiasm. His meetings have all been largely attended and have all accomplished much good. Mr. Hogan is a charming speaker and a splendid campaigner. Last night he spoke in Ironton, and old Memorial hall was crowded with people. It was one of the best meetings held in Ironton by either party during the campaign. After spending several days in Adams county, Mr. Hogan will devote some time to Scioto. He speaks in Kardon Friday in connection with Hon. Jas. W. Newman and in Portsmouth Saturday. He will speak at other points throughout the county.

Mr. Hogan is confident that there will be big Democratic gains in every county in this congressional district. He says that Jackson is almost sure to give Bryan a majority, while in every place he has yet spoken indications are that there will be a big Democratic gain.

The Silver club of Sciotoville had an enthusiastic meeting last night. It was addressed by Chas. Cole and Jas. Basham. There was a big crowd out and great enthusiasm. One of the features of the evening was the address of an old soldier, a gentleman named Crawford. Mr. Crawford enlisted in the army when he was but 17 years of age, and fought gallantly through the war. He was disabled in service.

Mr. Crawford arose in the meeting and asked permission to talk. He said that he had received an infamous circular to which Mark Hanna's name was attached. In cold type it warned him not to vote for Bryan. It stated that his pension would be cut in two—that the Democratic party had always fought the old soldiers. Mr. Crawford said that he had tried for seventeen years to get a pension under Republican administration, but that some Republican soldiers had written on to Washington time and again that he was a Democrat and had exerted themselves to keep him off the pension rolls. Finally, when Hoke Smith got in, he got a hearing before the department, was found worthy and granted a large pension.

Mr. Crawford said that he did not propose to be bluffed by Mark Hanna; that he was firmer in the faith than ever, and would vote for William J. Bryan. He was enthusiastically cheered. Immediately after the conclusion of Mr. Crawford's speech, arrangements were made to attend the big demonstration in this city Saturday. Sciotoville and Wheelersburg will turn out en masse and will make a grand showing in the parade. They will have banners galore, decorated wagons, horsemen, etc.

MONEY TALKS.

Any Person Having $100 or $200 to Rent on Kentucky Going for McKinley Can Be Accommodated.

A few days ago it was announced in the Times that $200 had been left at the office here to bet even that Bryan would carry Kentucky. This was a bona-fide offer. It was good then—it is good now. Not a single person has called at the Times office with the cash to take up the bet. This statement is made because reports have been circulated on the streets that parties have called at the office and found out that the offer was a bluff. If any such person came they came in the night time when no one was about. Money talks, gentlemen, and the man with $100 or $200 worth of conviction that McKinley will carry Kentucky can be accommodated.

Another Specimen.

The article in the Blade yesterday connecting Jas. S. Thomas with the row on Market street was a fabrication. Mr. Thomas says he was not engaged in that row, or any other row. The Blade also called Brother Dixon, of the First ward, a colored man. This must make that gentleman rejoice. His neighbors always thought he was white.

Separate Ballots for J. P.

Separate ballots are to be used in voting for justice of the peace to fill the office made vacant by the death of Will Waller. They are prepared in the regular Australian form. Only two names are printed on them—Robt. Dodge, the Democratic nominee, and Henry Hall, the Republican candidate.

REV. S. B. ALDERSON

A Topeka, Kansas, Minister Elected to Fill the Second Church Pulpit.

At a meeting of the Second Presbyterian church congregation at the church Tuesday evening, Rev. S. B. Alderson, of Topeka, Kansas, was selected to fill the vacant pulpit. He was unanimously recommended by the church having the matter in charge, and the congregation voted to endorse the committee's action and elect Dr. Alderson. Dr. Tappan presided at the meeting.

The newly elected pastor comes highly recommended. He was formerly pastor of a Maysville, Ky., church, and later at Washington O. H. From there he went to Topeka, Kansas, where he has been pastor of one of the largest congregations in the city. The work was too much for him and he was obliged to give it up on account of failing health. He has been heard at the Second church three Sundays, and the congregation was very favorably impressed. Dr. Alderson is a married man. He will assume his pastorate at once.

HOME TO VOTE

Some of Those Who Have Been Properly Registered and Will Come Home to Vote.

The travelers will all be home to vote. They have all registered properly and are coming from all directions. Among those who have sent in their registration and are coming on to vote are Will Boyerly, from Chicago; Geo. Zorns, from Columbus; Chas. Slagle, from the Starling Medical college, Columbus; Chas. Barber, from Brazil, Ind.; John D. Branch, Columbus; Joe Stevenson, the moulder, and Jas. Dunn, from Cincinnati; Harry Smith, from Huntington; John A. THE CHAMPION EATER.

An Indiana Man Who Will Eat Fifty Eggs Tonight on a $15 Wager.

A fellow named Brown, and claiming to be from Indianapolis, struck town this week. He is a wonder. He is the champion eater of the world. His capacity for storing away stuff on his inside is phenomenal. Tonight, at the Stag saloon, he will eat fifty fried eggs and three pounds of crackers to win a wager of $15. He is to eat the eggs inside of half an hour. He says he can do it easily.

Over in Indianapolis a few days ago, he says he cleaned out the following bit of menu at one sitting: Six dozen oyster stews, four pounds of crackers, five boxes of sardines and two dozen eggs. Any man capable of swallowing such a pile of stuff is entitled to all the medals he can carry. Brown is a tall, sickly, consumptive-looking man and bears a striking resemblance to Ike Fyles. He is a professional epicurean.

RECEPTION

To Be Given Rev. Robt. and Family Friday Evening.

The Epworth League of Sixth Street M. E. church will give a reception to the new pastor, Rev. Robt. and his family, in the lecture room of the church Friday evening. The room will be beautifully decorated, and every effort made to make the occasion an enjoyable one. All the members of the congregation and friends of the church, generally, are invited to attend and get acquainted.

Leg Amputated.

The friends of M. B. Ryan, of Ironton, will regret to learn that it has been necessary to amputate one of his legs just below the thigh joint. Amputation was only resorted to as a last means of preserving his life. He is in a very critical condition. Mr. Ryan is one of the foremost men in Ironton.

Arrest Nickle on Sight.

Henry Nickle, who recently ran away from his family with a woman named Stevers, is wanted here by the police. Chief Watkins has sent out letters of description to the various police officers throughout the state. Nickle is 5 feet, 9 inches high, weighs 160 pounds, has a stiff right hand, small eyes, and wears a Mason's pin. His family is in destitute circumstances and his wife wants him arrested.

BLANKEMEYER, THE TAILOR.

FOOTLIGHT FLASHES.

The Horace Vinton company, which Manager Grimes hoped to secure for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights next week, will not be here. The management writes that they will not take the road until after the election. This company supports Eda Clayton, a very clever actress.

It has been suggested by the men folks, who are generally caught at the theater behind high hats, that the stage be raised. The milliners are of the opinion that the hats would raise with it.

The next attraction at the Grand will be Friday night, next week. Fulton Bros. and Le Rue's Gold Band minstrels will hold the boards. They will give a street parade at noon and an open air concert in front of the theater at night. Robert Daniels, the advance of the aggregation, will be here Friday.

"South Before the War" will hold the boards at the Grand Saturday night of next week, also Saturday afternoon in matinee. See their monster street parade.

The story of the mother and the little girl who attended the theater, and as an actress in the play retired for the night caused the little daughter to cry out, "Mamma, just look at the naughty thing! She got into bed and didn't say her prayers," was given birth in this city. Dramatic writers pronounce it the most native bit of dramatic criticism they ever heard.

FRAGMENTS.

The Scioto Cycling club has disbanded for the winter.

Pitcher Sheppard and his broken arm are now doing duty behind the bar at the Lodge Cafe.

Frank Hacquard, of Market street, has a job. He is driver of the Poss-Schneider beer wagon.

Miss Susie Dawson, deputy probate judge, is confined to her home with severe injuries received by a fall from her bicycle.

He Entertained Them.

Mr. F. Worthington and his bride, of Kentucky, who were married Monday at the Arlington, were entertained at the pleasant home of George Herder, 98 East Ninth street, last night, and took the O. & O. train this morning for their home in Tygart Valley. The Times wishes to add its congratulations to those of the Ohio friends of the happy couple. Mr. Worthington is a brother of the present lieutenant-governor of Kentucky.

Davis Got the Job.

Yesterday evening the committee of St. Mary's church opened at John Baron's hardware store bids for a janitor on their premises. Among those considered were: Alfred Smith, $25 a month; Frank Dushinsky, at $300 per year; Peter A. Hubbard, $325 per year, and Frank Davis at $24 per month. Frank Davis being the lowest bidder, was appointed janitor for the coming year.

He Is in Town.

"Cool weather is coming, and the 'hot weinerwurst' man is in town. This time it is jolly Pete Mangieri, a son of balmy Italy. His musical voice and the rich aroma of hot tamales and weinerwurst will float on the crisp air like the swan and its shadow on St. Mary's lake.

It is surprising to many that football players and other athletes regard a sprain or bruise of little consequence. One reason of this is, they know how to treat such injuries so as to recover from them in a few days, while others would be laid up for two or three weeks, if not longer. Writing from Central State Normal School, Lock Haven, Pa., Mr. W. H. Losch, captain of the base ball club and gymnasium, says: "I take pleasure in stating that members of our base ball club and myself have used Chamberlain's Pain Balm with most excellent results. I unhesitatingly recommend it as the best remedy for sprains, swellings, cuts and bruises, of any that I know." For sale by Fisher & Streich, druggists.

A Sufferer Cured

"Every season, from the time I was two years old, I suffered dreadfully from erysipelas, which kept growing worse until my hands were almost useless. The bones softened so that they would bend, and several of my fingers are now crooked from this cause. On my hand I carry large scars, which, but for

BY THE DEVIL

Editor Musser, Is Robbed of $250 Worth of Jewelry.

Happened Nearly Two Weeks Ago But Has Been Kept a Profound Secret—A Negro Named Davis Suspected But He Is Gone—

"The residence of Editor Filmore Musser, of Portsmouth, was burglarized and jewelry and other valuables, worth $250, were taken."

This, from the Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune, was the first intimation ever given the world that a Portsmouth editor had been robbed. However impossible it seems, it is nevertheless true. It happened one week ago last Thursday. The police knew nothing of it until today. It has been kept a profound secret in the office of the Morning Excuse.

Robbed by the devil! That is the theory held by the editor, as it leaked through a gas pipe. Of course the devil got away and the stolen valuables are still with him wherever he may be. His name is Davis—George Henry Davis—and he is black. He came from Irouton several weeks ago and went to work in the Biggs House barber shop. He soon graduated into the Tribune newspaper business. Mr. Musser and family reside on the second floor in the office. While they were out Thursday a week ago, the devil went in and ransacked the rooms for valuables. He got two necklaces, three diamond rings, a watch chain, pins, and other jewelry. Mr. Musser places his loss at $200. The theft was not discovered for two or three days after the negro skipped. The whole affair was kept secret. All efforts to locate the thief have been unavailing.

BOND FIXED

Judge Taft Fixes J. L. Watkins' Bond at $25,000 and Will Accept It in Cincinnati.

The friends of Mr. J. L. Watkins concluded arrangements with Judge Taft, of the United States circuit court yesterday, by which bond for Mr. Watkins could be furnished in Cincinnati. Judge Taft fixed the bond at $25,000, and several gentlemen went to Cincinnati today to sign the bond and file it. If satisfactory to the court, and it probably will be, an order will be telegraphed to San Diego by Judge Taft to release Mr. Watkins from custody.

A FAIR CROWD

Of Republicans Went to Waverly to the Bushnell Meeting Today.

It wasn't exactly an ideal day for a political meeting, but a fair sized crowd went to Waverly this morning to take in the Bushnell meeting. There were probably from 125 to 150 in the Garfield and Blaine clubs that marched up through town headed by the River City band. Many of the Garfield club people who could not go themselves, loaned their hats and canes to friends and sent them as substitutes. They left at noon on a special train and will return about 6 o'clock, accompanied by Gov. Bushnell.

ARMY MEN

Pass Through South Portsmouth This Morning Enroute for Washington.

A special train of six coaches bearing a detachment of 72 United States soldiers from Ft. Sheridan, passed over the O. & O. today about noon. They were bound for Washington City where they will do special patrol service about the capital buildings. They traveled in style, having three fine coaches and three baggage cars. The train stopped at South Portsmouth for water. It started at Ft. Sheridan and will run as a special straight through to Washington.

They Kissed the Squire.

Squire Shakespeare was duly installed into the office of mayor this morning and will proceed to preside over the peace of the city for the next two weeks in the absence of Mayor Row in Cincinnati. The Squire at once made the acquaintance of the female prisoners. They fell in love with him on sight and two of them could not refrain from kissing him on his whiskers.

"I believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best for children I ever used. For croup it is unequalled. It is a splendid seller with us. T. M. Eckles, Ph. G., Manager Wampum Pharmacy, Wampum, Pa." When used as soon as the first symptoms appear, that is, as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. The mothers of croupy children should bear this in mind and always keep the remedy at hand. It is also the best medicine in the world for colds and whooping cough. For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by Fisher & Streich, druggists.

OBITUARY.

STOHRER.

Miss Hattie Stohrer died at her home, 450 Gallia street, this morning. She had been ill for some time with typhoid fever. She was 18 years of age and was the oldest daughter of Mrs. Mary Stohrer. She was a very pleasant and agreeable young lady, and many friends mourn her death. The funeral will take place Saturday.

JOHNSON.

The four months old child of J. J. Johnson, of Quincy, Ky., died yesterday evening of membranous croup.

TOMORROW NIGHT

Railroad Men Will Meet to Arrange for the Parade Saturday.

The railroad men of Portsmouth and vicinity will meet at Democratic headquarters, on Market street, tomorrow night, at about 7:30, or as soon thereafter as possible, to make arrangements to attend the free silver rally Saturday en masse. The railroad boys will demonstrate that they are not all for McKinley by a fine figure.

To Be Married This Evening.

Charles N. Weber and Ida May Burke will be married this evening at 8 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, on West Fourth street. Father Nonnen, of St. Mary's church, will perform the ceremony.

Fit for a Queen.

"No," said the old shopkeeper, sternly. "I will not do it. Never have I sold anything by false representations, and I will not begin now."

For a moment he was silent, and the clerk who stood before him could see that the better nature of his employer was fighting strongly for the right.

"No," the old man cried again, "I will not do it. It is an inferior grade of shoe, and I will never pass it off for anything better. Mark it 'A Shoe Fit for a Queen' and put it in the window. A queen does not have to do much walking."—Tit-Bits.

He Was Different.

"That's a neat paper weight you have there."

"Isn't it? I had it made to order. Do you recognize my wife's picture under the cube of glass?"

"Oh, yes. I have a paper weight that reminds me equally well of my wife, although it doesn't contain her portrait."

"What is the material?"

"Why, it's one of the first biscuits she made after she bought her new cook book."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

He—True? Of course, it isn't. The handsomest woman in the world is just the woman I have been looking for.

She—This is rather sudden; but, under the circumstances, I haven't the heart to refuse you.—Boston Transcript.

It Might Be Lying.

"Do you think she prevaricates?"

"I don't know. How much is she worth?"

"What has that to do with it?"

"Everything. It depends largely upon her wealth and position in society as to whether it is exaggeration, prevarication or plain lying."—Chicago Post.

Almost ? Distracted ?

DID YOU EVER suffer from real nervousness? When every nerve seemed to quiver with a peculiar, creepy feeling, first in one place, and then another and all seemed finally to concentrate in a writhing jumble in the brain, and you became irritable, fretful and peevish; to be followed by an impotent, weakened condition of the nerve centers, ringing in the ears, and sleepless, miserable nights?

Dr. Miles' Nervine Restores Health.....

Mrs. Eugene Searles, 110 Simonton St., Elkhart, Ind., says: "Nervous troubles had made me nearly insane and physicians were unable to help me. My memory was almost gone and every little thing worried me until I was almost distracted. I really feared I was becoming a maniac. I imagined all sorts of evil things and would cry over nothing. I commenced taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and four bottles of this wonderful remedy completely cured me, and I am as well now as I ever was."

OUR WHEAT.

Every Bushel of It That Can Be Spared Needed in Europe.

A Standard Authority Gives the Condition of Trade as It Exists.

The Year in the East Has Been One of Ordinary Supply—Australia Crop Will Be a Failure—A Shortage in Russia—India Importing Grain.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—A dispatch to the World from London says: A reporter of the World held a conversation with Mr. Rush, the editor of Beer-bohm's Corn Trade List, the standard authority on the market. Mr. Rush said: "This rise, almost for the first time on record, originated here, not in America. This shows that it could have had nothing to do with any manipulation of the American markets for political or other purposes. Its cause is that after several years of abundance the people now recognize that this year is one of ordinary supply."

"Owing to the previous abundance everybody held aloof from buying and the stocks ran down. Besides, the Australian crop is pretty certain to be a failure and there is the extraordinary fact that India has become for the moment, though to a small extent, an importer. These things caused the recent advance in prices. The trade always goes to extremes to start with. A reaction that has occurred was to be expected, but the cause of the advance remains."

"The men of the most experience in the London market believe that wheat is going to rule at thirty-five shillings ($5.75) a quarter (eight bushels is a quarter) because it is now realized, in addition to the other reasons I have given, that it is not possible to produce wheat in Europe cheaper."

"Argentina does not count in the calculation because her crop can not be reckoned on until the end of November. It is now promising, but a week of bad weather might spoil it altogether. If the Argentine crop falls there will be excitement in the trade. If it is full, abundant crop it will prevent such excitement. It can not furnish us with more than 5,000,000 quarters, which is a bagatelle in the general movement of the world's wheat. Besides, the difference in gold premium means a loss of from five to ten shillings a quarter against the Argentine farmer."

"The continental farmers follow us here and until the present occasion we have followed America."

"For the first time in years America now holds the key to the situation. Every bushel of wheat America can spare will be wanted in Europe. At least 20,000,000 quarters (160,000,000 bushels) will be wanted before the season is over."

"If America could hold back the wheat for a month it would go up ten shillings ($2.50) a quarter. But I suppose the American banks do not consider wheat a commodity on which it is safe to give large accommodation, so that the American trade is obliged to send wheat on as fast as it can."

"The Russian shortage is not known. It is now assumed here that it will be 10,000,000 quarters."

"We look forward on the whole to an active time, with considerable fluctuation, for the moment trade becomes brisk the speculators will rush in and influence the market."

TRIPLE MURDER.

Terrible Tragedy Enacted Near Richmond, Mo.—Mother and Two Children the Victims.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 28.—A special to the Scripps-McKee League from Richmond, Mo., says that a triple murder occurred eight miles northeast of that city Monday night. The victims were the wife and two little children of Jesse Winner. The children were aged three and one respectively. Winner is a miner and works in the mines at Richmond. The victims were evidently killed Monday night, but their bodies were not discovered until Tuesday morning.

When found by a neighbor, the body of Mrs. Winner, her head mashed out of all shape, was lying in the yard in a pool of blood.

The body of the oldest girl was found on the bed and that of the baby on the floor, under the bed. The throats of the children were cut and the jugular veins were severed. All around the house and in the yard were evidences of a terrible struggle and the poor woman evidently did not give up until the assassin had struck her a deadly blow on the head, cleaving the skull and cutting the top of her head off.

There is no clue to the assassin. A little deaf and dumb girl, the child of Mrs. Winner by a former marriage was present when the murder was committed, but is unable to tell anything of the crime.

Held Their Wheat for the Rise.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 28.—An afternoon paper has compiled information showing that the farmers of Eastern Washington have, since the recent rise in wheat, sold 15,000,000 bushels at an average price of 60 cents, the crop netting about $3,500,000 more than last year. This season the farmers were enabled to borrow money on warehouse receipts, which enabled them to hold their wheat until the rise.

A Populist Candidate Resigns.

GRAFTON, W. Va., Oct. 28.—A. W. Corley, of Braxton county, filed his resignation Tuesday as the populist candidate for the supreme court of appeals. This completes the list of resignations and the democrats and populists have at last made a common cause against the gold standard.

The Burning Steamer.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The fire in the hold of the steamer Worsley Hall was still alive Tuesday. All the water and steam pumped into her failed to quench the flames. She was beached on the Long Island shore Tuesday afternoon. Nothing short of this, it was decided, would save the ship.

CONDENSED NEWS

Gathered From All Parts of the Country by Telegraph.

The brothers Chase, bicyclists, rode a tandem at Rydenhall, Eng., Tuesday, covering five miles in 9 minutes and 23 seconds.

The battleship Oregon arrived at Monterey, Cal., Tuesday, where she will prepare for her final acceptance trial of 48 hours at sea.

The marital trouble of Col. Theodore C. Marceau and his wife were ended Monday by Judge Slack, of San Francisco, who granted the photographer a divorce on the ground of wilful desertion. Col. Marceau formerly lived in Cincinnati.

The preliminary inquiry into the case of E. H. Horner, the alleged European lottery swindler, arrested in Montreal last week, was continued Tuesday. It is said that letters are being received here every day alleging fresh instances of Horner's sharp practices.

Advices received at Athens are to the effect that severe fighting has occurred between a body of Turkish troops and the Macedonian insurgents commanded by Takis. The engagement took place near Coryza. Ninety Turks are said to have been killed and eight captured.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hart, a widow 60 years of age, and her daughter, Mrs. Sarah J. Stephenson, 35 years old and also a widow, were found asphyxiated Tuesday forenoon at their home in Boston. A gas jet was turned partly on and the room was full of gas. The deaths are believed to have been caused by accident.

A number of Cuban prisoners were landed at Cadiz and were taken to the prison where they will be confined. They were followed by a hooting mob, many members of which threw stones at the defenseless men. The gendarmes who had the prisoners in charge had much difficulty in protecting them against the violence of the mob.

W. J. Welsh, of Salt Lake, was found dead in his room at the Reed hotel, Ogden, Utah, Tuesday from an overdose of laudanum. Welsh was a prominent politician and newspaper man. For the past two years he has been engaged in newspaper work for Salt Lake newspapers, but was at the time of his death working on the Utahian.

The celebrated Braxton bridge lynching case came up at Aiken, S. C., Tuesday. The four men, W. B. Ackerman, Wyman Kearse, Frank Jeon and Frank Brant, who were tried in Waterboro last February, charged with the killing of Hamiah Walker, and acquitted, were arraigned, charged with the murder of Isam Carsea. The trial will likely last several days.

When the steamer Anchoria, from New York, October 17, for Glasgow, arrived at Morille, Eng., Tuesday morning, she was boarded by police officers, who arrested one of her passengers, a woman named Jane Browster, upon a charge of larceny in the theft of a quantity of jewelry, consisting of diamond and pearl brooches, the robbery having been committed in New Bedford, Mass.

WAGES MUST COME DOWN.

This Will Be an Inevitable Result If McKinley Should Be Elected President.

THE REASONS FOR IT.

Whether Wages Go Up or Down Depends Entirely on the Result of the Election.

If the Gold Standard Is to Become Permanent Wages Will Decline Along with Everything Else—The Profits of Business Already Gone—Bryan's Success Will Avert This Crisis.

Chicago, Oct. 27, 1896.—(Special).—The most sweeping and disastrous reduction of wages in the history of American industry will follow the presidential election, if the gold standard is finally foisted upon the nation.

Wage-earners are warned in advance, and if they fail to heed and govern themselves accordingly it is their own fault.

If Mr. McKinley is elected there will be a reduction in wages in all the great factories and mills of the country.

Were it not for the certainty that a general reduction in wages would bury Mr. McKinley under an avalanche of votes, wages would have been reduced two months ago. By almost superhuman energy Mark Hanna and the republican managers have averted the reduction except in a few unimportant instances. The great trusts, with their billions of money and their millions of employees, have been federated into a campaign machine, and have acted in concert. They have done so at an enormous sacrifice in profits. Many great corporations have been running at an actual loss, and the banks have been called on for support, until the strain threatened a panic.

But it was life or death. To shut down was a fatal admission. To reduce wages was suicidal. The weak ones were discouraged financially and they are now entering on what they propose shall be the last month of the present wage scale.

If Mr. McKinley is elected the political orators of the next decade will grow eloquent in description of the "good times of 1896." They will describe how in the fall of 1893 the great factories were running on full time; how every man who desired work could find it; how the tramp became a rarity and the smoke from a thousand factory shafts blackened the sky and the hum of industry made glad music in the land.

There is not a well-posted man in Chicago, New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh or any other manufacturing center who does not know that there will be a general reduction in wages put into effect the day after McKinley is elected.

This is so self-evident that it requires no written or verbal proof. By every act, by every move, by the columns of the great daily newspapers, they have proclaimed the coming reduction in wages in terms so plain that every man with common intelligence can read between the lines.

The United States has been on an absolute gold basis since the repeal of the Sherman act, which repeal was in 1890. Since that time there has been a steady and relentless reduction in prices, and consequently in profits. Wages have been reduced somewhat, but in no proportion as compared with the decline in selling price in all forms of property, with the single exception of gold. Real estate has declined, rents have fallen, manufactured goods have decreased in selling price; thousands of articles of manufacture and of common use have dropped slowly but surely in the price scale. Look at your stock reports. Compare the listed value of railroad stocks with the quotations of a year ago. Pick up your paper and compare the quotations on the great industrial stocks with the figures of a year or two ago. They tell the same story; the story of a steady decline in values, with decreased earnings for capital.

Capital and not labor has been the sufferer from the condition of affairs. By labor is meant employed labor. By capital is meant money employed in business of manufacturing. Capital has long before making a wage reduction. Capital respects the great labor organizations which stand like a rock in defense of prevailing wages. Capital knows the cost of a great strike and carefully considers the consequences before precipitating a wage war. As a result organized labor is the last to suffer from steadily-falling prices, and the wages of unorganized labor are fixed by the relative prosperity of the trade unions.

Can anyone deny these statements and prove their falsity? Are they not self-evident? There is no theory about it. These are the things that have happened. To recapitulate: Capital employed in business and manufacture has suffered and suffered enormously; business men and manufacturers have held out, hoping against hope for a rising market; some of them have failed; those yet in business can maintain the prevailing wage scale no longer, and are compelled by the inexorable law of supply and demand to reduce wages to a point where profits are possible. During these three years since the English gold power finally forced its standard on the American people, employed labor has fairly held its own, by virtue of the power of organization. But the day draws near when the crushing weight of the gold standard will break down the labor organizations, and with it the present wage scale will shrink many points nearer its inevitable level—the wage scale of England, Germany, Italy, Portugal and other countries.

In the enforcement of this merciless law who are the gainers? The answer is an easy one. Those who own the gold. Those who deal only in money. Those international pawnbrokers who own and control the gold; who manipulate markets with the skill of a magician; who permit a temporary rise in prices only as a means of realizing profits, and whose steady policy is to depreciate the value of everything but gold.

Pick up your republican or gold standard democratic paper and read what they are telling you. Open the envelopes Mark Hanna is sending you and read the inclosed pamphlets. What do they tell American wage-earners? Here are some of the things they tell you:

That the purchasing power of a dollar has enormously increased.

That the wage-earner is more prosperous to-day by reason of the increased purchasing power of his dollar than ever before in the history of the country.

That things are cheaper than ever before and that any change which will raise prices will be at the cost of the wage-earner.

That if our present dollar is a 200-cent dollar, the wage-worker is the greatest gainer.

That falling prices are a national blessing; that a dollar which does not rise in value is a dishonest dollar.

They are attempting to prove to workmen and wage-earners that they are overprosperous; that this wonderful prosperity is the result of the gold standard and that a return to the use of silver and gold will be disastrous.

What is the effect of this? They are preparing American workmen for a reduction in wages. When the election is over they will inform you that capital is entitled to some of the blessings which follow the adoption of the gold standard. They will assure you that the wage fund is absorbing all the profits of production, and prove by their books and by stock quotations that such a readjustment in wages must be made as to permit the profitable employment of capital in order that it may continue production and the employment of labor.

And when you strike you will lose. And when you lose, and when the vast army of the now unemployed have taken your places at reduced wages, you will then have received the benefit of an object lesson showing the inevitable result of the gold standard and falling prices. And then you will have plenty of time to study this question.

A few years later, when prices have yet further declined, when gold has yet further advanced, the same thing will happen again, with the same result, and wages will have tended downward by that natural law which proclaims that under competition all things seek a common level. And it will not end until the United States reaches the plane in the wage scale of gold standard Italy and Portugal.

By the election of Mr. McKinley this reduction in wages will be enforced by all the power of the military and the unrestricted use of that new and scientific weapon of gold monopoly, "government by injunction." Congress will convene upon the election of McKinley in special session and grant new powers to the judiciary and carry into national effect those methods so successfully employed in private use by Mark Hanna, H. C. Frick, of Homestead, and H. C. Payne, of Milwaukee.

The election of W. J. Bryan will defeat the proposed reduction in wages. The triumph of free silver; the election of a congress opposed to English monometallism with its falling values and wages, will act as a tonic on the American people. The steady depreciation of values will cease; the rise in the selling price of manufactured and farm products will act as a national stimulus. Gold will fall in price. The international pawnbrokers will lose money, but the people will live. When the firm of Heidebach, Ickleheimer & Co. suffers a loss every farmer and workman in the United States will be a distinct gainer.

By the election of W. J. Bryan no increase in the army will be made necessary. Arbitration will take the place of coercion.

When congress passes the bill remonetizing silver, and when that precious metal again assumes its function as legal and constitutional money, wages will steadily rise. The decline in values will cease, and slowly but steadily rise to a point where an honest bushel of wheat can look an honest dollar squarely in the face. And in this operation the pawnbroker will go out of business.

Mr. Carnegie could not wait until after the election. Read this telegram: "Pittsburgh, Oct. 1.—(Special) to the Carnegie Record.—Notices have been posted at the Homestead mill of the Carnegie company of a readjustment of wages to take effect January 1, 1897. Under the agreement with the workmen each side is required to give 90 days' notice of any change desired in the wages paid. It is not known how many departments will be affected by the proposed change, or whether the day men or only the tonnage men will be subject to a reduction in pay.

"The men say a readjustment always means a reduction, and that it was a readjustment that caused the big strike of 1892."

That 90-day notice clause was an unfortunate thing for Mark Hanna's plans. In the Carnegie mills all new scales go into effect the first of the year. In the improbable event of Mr. McKinley's election, Mr. Carnegie will reduce the wages of his 10,000 employees not less than $750,000 for the coming year, and that is a larger contribution than he cares to make to the campaign fund, in view of the fact that by no human possibility can a new tariff bill be passed in the next four years.

The American workman who votes for William McKinley votes for a permanent reduction in wages.

Three Per Cent. Cut in Wages.

Muncie, Ind., Oct. 18.—Particulars of the settlement of the flint glass workers' wage scale at Pittsburgh last week have just developed to the effect that the reduction the men accepted was three per cent. The manufacturers state that the nonunion factories made it only a question of time when the men would have to take a greater reduction, or see their organization go to pieces.

A REMARKABLE PARALLEL.

A Letter by Mr. Jefferson Which Applyes to the Present Situation.

In 1800, when the federalist party was virtually wiped out, Thomas Jefferson wrote his friend and Virginia neighbor, Mazzei, then in France, a letter in which he gives a strictly accurate outline, not only of that campaign, but of this.

"The aspect of our politics," Jefferson writes, "has wonderfully changed since you left us. In place of the noble love of liberty and republican government, which carried us triumphantly through the war, an American party has sprung up whose avowed purpose it is to draw us over to the substance, as they have already done to the forms, of the British government. While the main body of our citizens remain true to republican institutions * * * against us are the executive, the federal, two out of three branches of the legislature, all the officers of the government, all timid men, who prefer the calm of despotism to the boisterous sea of liberty, all British merchants and American speculators and brokers and with them the banks and dealers in the public funds (United States bonds)—a contrivance invented for the purpose of corruption and for assimilating us to the rotten as well as to the sound parts, of the British model. It would give you a fever if I were to name to you the apostates who have gone over to these heresies—men who were once Solomons in council and Samsons in the field, but who have had their heads shorn by the harlot England. In short we are likely to preserve the liberty we have obtained only by unremitting labors and perils. But we shall preserve it."

AN INSULT TO LABOR.

A Sacer at the Intelligence of Those Who Favor Bryan and the Free Coinage of Silver.

Dugald Crawford, proprietor of a big St. Louis department store, is being prosecuted for dismissing 12 of his employees who had the temerity to confess, when he asked them the direct question, that they were in favor of free silver and intended to vote for Bryan. The Chicago Evening Post, the organ of the golding aristocracy of that city, editorially suggests the following escape for Crawford from his dilemma: "Mr. Crawford can beat the charge if he will go into court and claim that he discharged his employees because their announcement of an intention to vote for Bryan proved them unfit to discharge their duties intelligently."

This is a gross insult to every man who favors Bryan and free silver, and it is not the only one of the kind which the Post has recently given. Sneers at the intelligence of bimetalists are evidence of the ignorance, as well as the bad manners of the dudes who fawn upon the gold power. The scientific opinion of the world is almost unanimously in favor of bimetalism. A sneer at the intelligence of his employees will not clear Bulldozer Crawford.

"We can afford to be poor," said Gen. Russell A. Alger, of Michigan, who is chaperoning a crowd of "generals" around the country, speaking in McKinley's interests, "we can afford to be poor," said he, addressing a crowd of workmen at Kansas City, "but we cannot afford to be dishonest. We must pay everything we owe with 100-cent dollars." This is the very identical Millionaire Alger whom Senator Sherman deliberately charges, in his book, upon conclusive proof, with buying the votes of negro delegates instructed for himself in the national republican convention of 1888. Can such a man teach workmen honest finance?

"You may read its history and you will find that the gold standard never brought a ray of hope to those who sit in darkness; the gold standard never gave inspiration to those who are downcast."—W. J. Bryan.

The committee from the Labor Legion of Chicago, appointed to investigate charges against Gov. Altgeld's convict labor record, recently made by eight alleged workmen, have made a thorough investigation, going to the Joliet penitentiary for that purpose, and declare that the charges are wholly unfounded.

"Oh, the exigencies of this campaign, when John Ireland, archbishop of St. Paul, and Robert G. Ingersoll, the pope of infidelity, clasp hands on the same platform and unite in denouncing millions of their fellow citizens as fools and anarchists."—Father Nugent.

Not a single dictionary or cyclopedia in the English language before the year 1878 ever defined dollar in any term other than silver. In that year the administrators of the estate of Noah Webster cut the plates of our standard lexicon and inserted a new definition that had become necessary in order to make the bond intrigue, in congress and out of it, consist.

HENRY GEORGE SAYS BRYAN WINS.

The Result of a Careful Tour of Observation Through the Central West.

THE DRIFT FOR BRYAN.

An Opinion That Is the More Valuable Because of Its Extreme Caution and Conservatism.

Henry George Undertook a Trip Through the Doubtful States Convinced That McKinley Would Win—His Observation Leads Him to Change That Opinion and He Is Now Confident of Bryan's Success.

Early in September Mr. Henry George was requested by the New York Journal to make a tour of the so-called doubtful states in the middle west and to give the public in an entirely unbiased manner the result of his observations of the political conditions existing there.

Before his reply was received the news came from Maine of the increased republican majority at the state election there. Then followed Mr. George's answer, as follows:

"Chicago, Sept. 15, 1896. "In my opinion, confirmed by Maine, the result is foregone. I believe, therefore, that a convinced free silver man would be better to make proposed trip for Journal than I, as candor is something uselessly painful to friends. Will go ahead if you wish and do my best to give exact truth as I see it, but my judgment and feelings are against this.

"Would prefer to save my time and your money by not beginning. Could stop until tomorrow's committee meeting for your private information if you wish, though do not think I could learn anything not public; otherwise would start back. Advise me, Victoria hotel.

"HENRY GEORGE."

In reply to this message the editor of the Journal telegraphed to Mr. George, requesting him to remain for a short time in the doubtful territory and describe the situation as he saw it.

On October 5 Mr. George, having spent three weeks in the doubtful states, more especially in Illinois, Ohio, and West Virginia, was requested to telegraph, for the information of the editor of the Journal, his opinion of the probabilities. In reply, he sent the following:

"Cleveland, O., Oct. 5.

"My belief is that Bryan will be elected. "This is my carefully-formed private, as well as public, opinion. I congratulate the Journal on the good prospects.

"HENRY GEORGE."

Mr. George, it is seen, began his journey with the settled conviction that McKinley's election was assured. For this reason he suggested that some one else undertake the trip for the Journal. But as only the exact truth was desired, and as Mr. George is every where known for thoroughness of investigation, accuracy of conclusion, and fairness of statement in all matters political, it was especially desired that he would make this trip and do this work. His reports are therefore valuable for their entire candor and reliability.

Mr. George has himself been surprised at the results of his investigations in the doubtful states. He began his trip fully convinced that McKinley would win. The results have convinced him that Bryan will win.

After having sent the Journal the above dispatch from Cleveland, O., on October 5, Mr. George continued his journey through the states of Indiana, Wisconsin, Michigan and Minnesota and returned to New York. On the 18th of October he submitted his final report to the Journal as follows. It is all the stronger and more valuable for its extreme caution and conservatism:

"October 18, 1896.

"Editor New York Journal: "I came back to New York over more than a third of the continent to register my vote and hear what the great American Union the speech in which he set forth what, in my mind, is the most important of the issues of the campaign.

"The question which greets me from the lips of every friend I have yet met, and the question repeated in all I have as yet had opportunity to glance at in the pile of letters I found awaiting me, is: "WHAT DO YOU REALLY THINK WILL BE THE OUTCOME OF THE ELECTION?"

"Let me answer questioners and correspondents, one and all, through the medium of the Journal. My personal opinion differs from that which has already been expressed in the letters that have recently been telegraphed by me to the Journal from the places where they have been written only in this:

"I AM SOMEWHAT MORE CONFIDENT THAT MY LETTERS TO THE JOURNAL HAVE SHOWN THAT BRYAN WILL CARRY THE STATES THAT HAVE BEEN CONSIDERED DOUBTFUL IN THE CENTRAL WEST, AND WILL BE ELECTED TO THE PRESIDENCY.

"I have no ability to see into the future, and am liable to all the mistakes of judgment that beset man or woman, but this is my opinion as to what will be, formed after five weeks' of as diligent, cautious and dispassionate effort as I am capable of to discover the trend and strength of the tides of political opinion now running in that part of the country.

"This was not my first opinion—on the contrary, it at first seemed to me that McKinley, not Bryan, would carry the central west; but it is the matured conviction with which I came back to New York. And that the tide is daily setting more strongly toward Bryan, I am convinced.

"HENRY GEORGE."

This is not the work of a campaign manager, anxious to give coloring of victory to his own side. It is the result of a tour of observation of a candid, truthful, and reliable man, who began the work with the conviction that McKinley's election was sure. That it is a correct forecast the 2d of November will prove.

The McKinley parade in Chicago on the 9th was little more than a slaughter of free labor to make a shilly-shally holiday.

THE ATTACK THAT REACTED.

W. R. Hearst's Reply to His Opponents—Why He Is a Bimetallist.

Mr. W. R. Hearst, of the New York Morning Journal, has begun the publication of the evening edition of that marvelous publication.

Mr. Hearst has attracted the attention of the whole world by the brilliant manner in which he has espoused the cause represented in Mr. Bryan's presidential candidacy. He has, of course, been attacked by his opponents, but his answer every time has been the publication of a better newspaper. The last attack comes from the San Francisco Call, owned by Spreckels, of the sugar trust. The Examiner is the largest and most influential newspaper published in San Francisco, and it is owned by Mr. Hearst, who is defending democracy from both the Atlantic and the Pacific coasts. The Call is a rabid gold organ, and in a recent issue it made a pernicious effort to impugn the motive of the Examiner and of Mr. Hearst in espousing the cause of free coinage, intimating that the Hearst estate was chiefly interested in silver mining property, and that Mr. Hearst's devotion to the cause of bimetalism was promoted by mercenary and selfish instincts.

In connection with this charge the following inventory was given. It will be observed, however, that the character of the mines was not specified:

Shares.	Value.
Anaconda Mining Co., 120,000	$3,000,000 00
Daily Mining Co., 27,632 1-5	525,000 00
Cuba Gold Mining Co., 43,570	871,400 00
Ontario Mining Co., 32,251	1,226,975 00
Mammoth Grove Mining Co., 50	500 00
Homestake Mining Co., 5	40 00
Homestake Mining Co., 24,161 1-2	133,265 00
Highland Mining Co., 34,255	205,720 00
Deadwood Terra Mining Co., 42,418	21,203 66
Puget Sound Co., 19,009 1-5	4,932 30
Texas Flat Gold and Silver Mining Co., 25,453	10,181 20
Clara Con., 50,000	50,000 00
Phoenix Silver Mining Co., 4,476	2,238 10
Brewer Mining Co., 75,000	50,000 00
Joculista Mining Co., 12,001 1-5	No value
Total	$5,911,691 12

Mining properties not incorporated: Sierra Gravel Mine, $2,000 00; Sundry mining ventures with J. B. Haggis, $50,000 00; Chrome mines in Siskiyou and Shasta counties, mining and other properties in Calaveras county, 75,000 00.

Grand total, $6,036,691 12.

As it turns out, only four of these mines are silver producers. These are the Daly, Ontario, Phoenix and Joculista, aggregating a valuation of $1,753,946.00. The other mines are gold and copper producers. One of these alone, the Anaconda mine, is valued at $7,500,000, instead of $3,000,000, as estimated by the Call.

It will be observed from these figures, which are furnished by Mr. Hearst himself, that only a small percentage of his mining property is invested in silver. Most of his interests are invested in gold and copper. Naturally, therefore, if he consulted his own selfish interests in the matter, he would espouse the single gold standard and reap the benefit of whatever enhancement in value that policy might give to the yellow metal.

Instead of doing this, however, he has chosen rather to ignore his own interest and to espouse that policy which is calculated to promote the welfare of the masses.—Atlanta Constitution.

A Test Vote in Iowa.

The Des Moines Daily News is an independent republican daily, which has taken a poll of its readers on the coinage issue, and placed the returns in the hands of non-partisan judges for canvass. The ballot of 250 towns, as sent to the News, gives Bryan three votes to McKinley's one. The republican vote, which was 708 for Bryan and 509 for McKinley was specially significant.

CIRCUIT COURT

Several Decisions of Interest
Handed Down.

The Helt Liquor Case Remanded—Draper vs. Waterson Tax Suit Dismissed—New American Voters—A Union Township Church Disturber Jailed—Court House.

The Gierhart cases will be disposed of in circuit court today. It has been a long, tedious drag on the court, and a change will be welcomed. The Harry W. Miller, receiver, vs. Jos. Hornung case will be taken up next. This is also a long case, there being a vast amount of evidence to be brought in. Circuit court will not be in session longer than this week, and all cases not disposed of in that time will lay over until Judge Devor disposes of his docket.

In the Robert Baker, Jr., vs. John W. O'Connor case, appealed from common pleas, judgment has been given for defendant, and motion for a new trial overruled. The suit was on mechanic's lien and the amount involved was only $34.

The case of Draper, treasurer, vs. John A. Waterson, appealed by plaintiff, has been dismissed. This is the suit brought by the county treasurer to collect $192.88 taxes on certain Catholic school property in the city. Judgment for defendant was given in common pleas. It stands.

The judgment for plaintiff in State of Ohio vs. Geo. Helt, adulterated whiskey case, has been reversed, and the case is now remanded back. Judgment was against defendant in mayor's court and it was appealed on error through common pleas to the circuit court. This is one of the first cases brought by Deputy Food Inspector W. B. Hastings.

Judgment for plaintiff in City of Portsmouth vs. Chas. Rauch, injunction suit appealed, has been approved.

NATURALIZED.

Naturalization papers have been taken out in the probate office by the following persons, who are now considered full American citizens: Jacob Bender, a native of Germany; Jas. Simpson, a native of Scotland; Thos. Usher and Robert Mathews, late subjects of Her Majesty, Queen Victoria. They will all cast a ballot for President at the coming election.

BAD BOY.

Geo. Long, an incorrigible youth, son of Jas. Long, has been ordered sent to the Boys' Industrial school for reformation. The boy will not go to school and his parents are unable to manage him.

BROKE UP MEETING.

A new prisoner at the jail is Frank M. Kasee, a young man from Union township. He was brought in by Constable Mereshon, who came armed with comment papers from 'Squire Alf Cooper's' court. Kasee is another disturbing element in church circles out in Union. He delights in breaking up church services by throwing stones through the house. He is to serve a sentence of $1 and costs and one day in jail.

IN JAIL.

Defaulting Treasurer Legg Behind the Bars at Waverly.

Geo. W. Legg, Pike county's ex-treasurer, is now behind the bars in Waverly. He arrived there Monday evening and was driven directly to the jail. The entire town turned out to receive the sheriff and his prisoner. Business was entirely suspended, and the entire town talked about the biggest sensation the little town has had for years. Much sympathy was expressed for Legg. He had many friends in Pike county, who stick by him through all his troubles.

Notice to Electors.

The city board of elections will be in session at their office, No. 123 Court street, from 8 until 5:30 o'clock p. m., standard time, Monday, Nov. 2, 1896, for the purpose of granting orders for registration, correction of errors, etc.

The Big Ticket.

The tickets this year are the largest ever used at an election. The seven tickets make a ballot 19x23 inches in size. 16,000 of them are being printed for use in the county. The Second ward gets the largest number, 350. Bloom gets 300 and Jefferson and Vernon 350 each.

Twenty per cent. discount on all trimmed hats this week at Mrs. L. Bolns's, on Chillicothe street. One hundred and twenty-five to select from. Call and see them. They will only last a few days at the prices we are making. 26-6

You Can Vote.

A young man who is working for the N. & W. says he is of age, single, and has made his home in this state for over a year and been in Portsmouth for more than thirty days. He wants to know if he can vote here. He certainly can, if he has registered.

"I had chronic diarrhoea for ten years," says L. W. Kichlein, a justice of the peace at South Easton, Pa. "No remedy afforded me real relief until I was induced by Chas. T. Killian, the druggist, to try Chas. Kichlein's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy. It cured me and for a year I have had no return of the trouble." It has also cured many others, among them old soldiers who had contracted the disease in the army and given up all hope of recovery. For sale by Fisher & Streich.

JACK'S BUSY TIME.

There Are Some Jobs Waiting for the Right Men in Several Wards.

Secretary Jack, of the city board of elections, is one of the busiest men in the city. The tally sheets are being shaped up and everything is being gotten up in the best possible manner, so that the ward clerks will not have anything to do but sign their names to the sheets. Jack can be found at his desk in the mayor's office any time in the day.

The following officers are still wanted: A Republican clerk in the First; a Democratic judge in the Third; a Democratic clerk in the Fifth A; a Democratic judge in Sixth B and a Republican clerk in the Seventh.

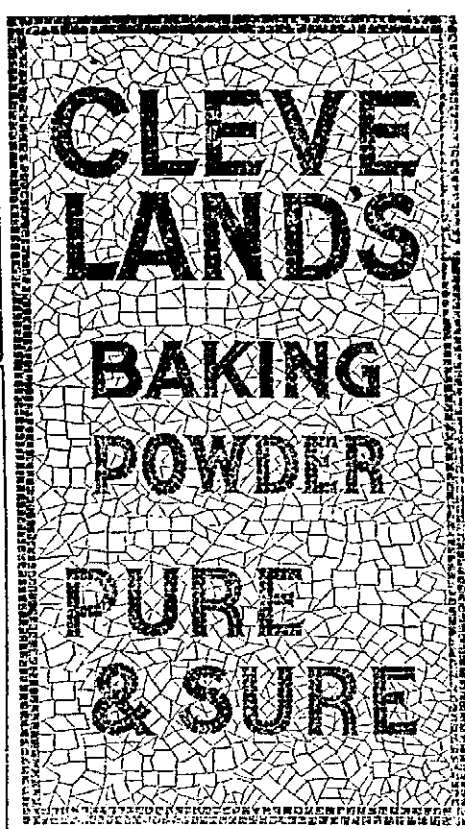

A Diphtheria Scare.

Chillicothe is still greatly worked up over diphtheria. They now have eleven cases under the care of physicians and more a-comin'. The board of health has adopted stringent quarantine measures.
